Human Rights Day

10th December 2019

This day is celebrated to improve the physical, social, cultural and spiritual wellbeing and welfare of the vulnerable group of people globally. The students presented a role play highlighting the issue of lack of awareness among the illiterate and poor about their basic rights and how they are repressed by the powerful for their selfish motives. The students made it loud and clear through their effective performance that to deny people their human rights is to challenge humanity. The human rights belong equally to each of us and bind us together as a global community with the same ideals and values.

Jeypore college of Pharmacy organized a meeting in which students, Staff along with principal and vice principal participated in the meeting speech was given by our principal and some of our staff on the topic of youth standing up for human rights, students of JCP raise their voice on this topic and elaborated their thoughts. At last programmer is concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr S K Panda Sir.
